Hi Helio,

I hope you're doing great. This is Makoy, one of the account supervisor.

I have read all your email regarding the issue with your Google Account. I understand that you would like to know why the address is being blocked by people.

It's really unfortunate that you had to get bounced around so many times. I know how inconvenient this can be putting myself into your situation. However, we really don't have a way to check why people block specific email address for security and privacy of the account.

If you are having issues sending an email to a specific address, I can suggest to create a new one (Gmail) and then try to email them again.

And if you are still having an issue accessing your Google Account, please note that the only way to recover a Google Account is by going through Account Recovery tool which is g.co/recover.

We do not have a reset option on our end to reset the password on your account, nor do we have a way to modify information in your account due to privacy policies, fraud prevention and to protect your account, and your personal information.

I hope this clears out your confusion. I would love to help you for any additional inquiries about your Google One membership. Feel free to reply if there's any other way I can be of help.

Google also appreciates our members' feedback. Please fill out a brief survey about your recent support experience. We would love to hear from you!

Thanks,

Makoy

Hello,

You do not seem to understand.

I have been emailing law enforcers and attorneys to either report crime or try to find an attorney.

- I have been emailing a number of recipients that is of course less than the number allowed by gmail so the number of recipients shouldn't be a matter.

- I have been emailing attorneys trying to find an attorney; so they should not be reporting these emails as spam nor should they look suspicious.
- I have been emailing the police - domestic and international law enforcement agencies - to report crime so they should not be marking these emails as spam nor should the emails look suspicious.

On this basis I am asking you to please unblock my email addresses globally by any means possible to you; and to do this urgently.
