Narrative: Corporal Malone and Officer Hash responded to the area of Gharrett and Garland for a welfare check on a bicyclist who had possibly crashed. The complainant had witnessed the male fall over at this area. Malone made contact with Gharrett and Garland for a welfare check on a bicyclist who had possibly crashed. The complainant had witnessed the male fall over at this area. Malone made contact with Gharrett and Garland and identified as William Stevens, near the intersection of Gharrett and Garland. Stevens was sitting on the ground and was unable to stand without assistance. Officer Hash arrived and identified Stevens from his D. Stevens provided a DOB which matched the name William Stevens. Malone walked over to his bicycle, and turned it over to check the serial number. Malone asked Stevens who the bicycle belonged to which he shrugged his shoulders, then stood up and said, "Just take me to jail". Stevens continued to walk away in the direction of Malone's patrol vehicle. Stevens stopped just past the rear door, and turned towards officers. Stevens was becoming more and more agitated, and aggressive. Malone told him he did not have to go to jail right at this moment, and asked if he could help him in any other way. Stevens continued to walk back towards the front of the truck, and then threw something at Malone. Again, Malone told Stevens he did not have to go to jail right at this moment, and asked if he could help him in any other way. Stevens looked at Malone, and was assuming a fighting stance. Malone again told him to stop, and he threw something at Malone which hit the front of his vest.

Because of his current posture, and demeanor, Malone delivered a front kick, aiming for the lower abdominal area. Stevens bent part way over, and stepped away from the truck. Malone grabbed Stevens and took him to the ground. Officer Hash arrived, and helped Malone with the arrest. Officer Hash grabbed Stevens legs, and was still struggling with officers however they were able to get him into handcuffs. Officers wanted to get Stevens out of the road as quickly as possible. Malone picked him up and took him around the front of the truck. As they were nearing the grass, Stevens started struggling with officers. Malone used a leg sweep, and tripped him into the grass. Once he was down on the ground, Malone was able to adjust his handcuffs, and double lock them. Stevens was arrested for Assault.

As you can see Stevens is marked by Corporal Malone as white... Chris Odlin responded to the scene because it's written in use of force protocol at MPD. He stood within 3 feet of Jesse Stephens and must have only seen his white shirt and not his skin tone. One use of force happens the shift commander is dispatched. That's the protocol. I'd show you Chris Odlin's report if it were attached to the files as well, but to my knowlege it is not.

What is attached is the form (misreported by Corporal Malone) that commander Odlin has oversight and responsibility in ensuring is properly filed.

Let's stick to the facts please!

Your assertion that city police officers and/or shift commanders "knowingly misreport the subjects race in the use of force report" is a speculative assertion/conclusion on your part for which no actual evidence has been provided. It is entirely possible that unknowingly a human mistake occurred that was also unknowingly then carried forward into another police report.

M. on October 9, 2019. Subsequently, Mr. Stevens was released on his own recognizance the next morning from any Municipal Court detention center hold on the assault charge about 12 hours later on October 10, 2019 during daily prisoner arraignments by the municipal court judge.

However, it is my understanding that because Mr. Stevens had consumed alcohol, he violated his felony probation and parole sentence of 96 months on his felony criminal charges for felony criminal endangerment and felony theft that had occurred on October 14, 2015 and for which he was sentenced by a District Court Judge on April 26, 2017. In order for a criminal offense of theft to be a felony, the monetary amount must exceed $1,500.00 dollars. Therefore, it is possible that Mr. Stevens did not actually get released from the Missoula County Detention center on October 10, 2019; because Missoula Probation and Parole might have had a hold on Mr. Stevens for violating his probation and parole for violating his probation and parole terms by consuming alcohol. It is my understanding that the police video that had been introduced at the municipal court trial and thereby became public record was attached to the Missoulian story and that several times Mr. Stevens can be heard stating that he is in violation of his parole.

No staff at the City of Missoula, whether it be police, judicial or prosecution has any control of what the State of Montana Probation and Parole does with respect to probation and parole violators. Probation and parole are Montana state probation and parole matters and are not city processed matters.

We do know that Mr. Stevens was apparently released from the Missoula County Detention Center on any Missoula Probation and Parole hold well within any seven month time period; because subsequently on January 14, 2020 Mr. Stevens was arrested and cited for a second offense partner family member assault. Montana state law requires law enforcement arrest of the assailant for partner family member assault offenses. Since it was Mr. Stevens second offense partner family member assault charge a bail bond was set this time by the municipal court. Also, it is again possible that Missoula Probation and Parole might also have placed another hold on Mr. Stevens as a result of his second offense partner family member assault charge, Mr. Stevens subsequent second offense partner family member assault likely also violated conditions of release on his own recognizance that the municipal court would have placed on him when releasing him on his own recognizance on October 10, 2019.

The police report in question that city police had failed to provide the city attorney's office with was not about Mr. Stevens, or Mr. Stevens conduct. The police report was a police department internal review report, reviewing a police officer's conduct.

Our chief prosecutor and office manager have met with the police chief and police administration to inform and discuss the matter in order to ensure that the police department administration understands that the District Court held that their internal use of force review reports must be considered police reports for the purpose of responding to discovery requests about any defendant's case when made by any criminal defendant or their attorney.

Subject: BuzzFeed News: Georgia sheriff's deputy fired after video shows him repeatedly punching a Black man

Hi all,

Replace the phrase "Black man" with "Native American."

Now we're talking about right here, right now (in Missoula).

The black man was riding in a Uber as a passenger by the way.

Sounds almost as ridiculous as a 'welfare check' for a drunk guy on a bike (Jesse Stevens) that ended with him spending 7 months in jail for NO REASON.

Remember the ENTIRE community spoke out against continued overfunding of MPD.

That will be very valid when the next police brutality event transpires or fatality happens at the hands of MPD right here in Missoula.

The public is getting pretty unhappy that we're not seeing anyone deal with the issues specifically reprimanding the officers involved in Jesse Stevens case.

Where is the reprimand/punishment for The police officers involved in Jesse Stevens case?

What about the city attorneys office who is to blame as well?

Where are y'all at on this?

Silent?

Complacent?

Checks out all the way around!

Have a great day!

All I see is fake woke pale faces telling myself and my friends that this isn't real.

Again, I'm telling you all this to keep you ahead of the ball here.

Do something NOW!

Regards,

-Matts

Roderick Walker was heard saying "I'm gonna die," while two sheriff's deputies in Georgia pinned him to the ground and one punched him in the face several times.
