In case you don't all pay the same attention to Wm. Skink's blog as Councilwoman Jones (in)famously has:

"...I'm sure Missoula's decimated service sector workforce will be excited to hear about how affordable Missoula looks to fleeing Boulderites. And the non-profit workforce should also be energized at the added pressure on Missoula's housing market as they triage crisis after crisis while our Mayor keeps his hopes (and our public money) pinned to his delusional vision for an event center. ..."
