Dear news professionals,

Snow has arrived in the Missoula valley, and with it the need to shovel sidewalks. The City of Missoula reminds property owners that they are responsible for clearing the sidewalks in front of their homes and businesses and asks that people help their neighbors whenever possible.

The City has a slightly altered procedure for notifying property owners of complaints about uncleared sidewalks. Property owners will receive letters following the first and second complaints about a property. After subsequent complaints, snow will be removed by a City contractor, and the property owner will be billed. Most Missoula property owners are good neighbors, and many people help each other out.

See our attached news release for complete information. And thank you for helping us remind the public that winter has arrived.
