1. Introductions were made
2. 44 Ranch playground project
Dave reported that Spectrum Aquatics will most likely donate the playground equipment for 44 Ranch Park, and installation could begin in September. He explained the associated costs and processes, and answered questions.
Patrick presented a playground plan, explained the layout, and discussed additional items needed to round out the playground to provide adequate play value for all children's ages and abilities. He will email the playground plan and an equipment ranking sheet to Lianna.
Lianna will send an email to neighborhood contacts about the playground with a questionnaire to rank the playground items.
City support, fundraising and applying for a neighborhood large grant were discussed.
A town hall general meeting will be set to announce/discuss the substantial Spectrum donation, fundraising, ranking of additional playground items, and proposed installation timeline. The meeting will be posted online and announced through the Office of Neighborhoods Digest.
3. Public comment on non-agenda items - none
4. Appoint interim Leadership Team members – no members were appointed at this time.
5. Announcements – none
