Dear city council members,

I was very surprised to find an ordinance in place in a city in Montana that imposed a city-wide dog ban for all restaurants and bars/breweries, instead of letting restaurateurs/bar owners decide for themselves their own policies regarding dogs.

It has made my trip here with my dog very unpleasant and I'll be letting people know on my various Montana Facebook groups that it's a very dog-unfriendly town.

Many restaurants and bars have lost my business in my week-long visit because of the prohibition. And I certainly won't be back.
