MPD Need Help Identifying Person of Interest in the Boone and Crockett and Senior Citizen Center Arsons.

BACKGROUND: On 4/12/13, between 6:00 a.m. and 7:00 a.m. the Missoula Police Department and Fire Department responded to two separate structure fires. Both fires are believed to be arson related.

The first fire was at the Senior Citizen Center, whereupon a wooden shack adjacent to the building was lit on fire. The second fire was at Boone and Crockett, where a male suspect placed a combustible material against an outside doorway and lit it on fire.

The MPD and MFD previously released still photographs taken from a surveillance camera at Boone and Crockett (digitally attached below). The suspect is described as: Caucasian male, possible in his mid 20's, thin build, wearing a checkered reflective coat. With the suspect was a male and female that appeared to be arguing in the parking lot.

Missoula Police Detectives wish to identify and question the woman in this new surveillance footage (digitally attached below). Detectives believe this woman was present
