Annual Montana League of Cities and Towns district meeting (memo).—Regular Agenda (Mayor Engen) (Referred to committee: 08/09/10)

Alec Hansen, Executive Director of Montana League of Cities and Towns opened the meeting with a Legislative Report handout. He discussed the national economy, state and local finance challenges and mentioned cities and towns will need to challenge the legislature to keep local government costs down.

The handout contains information regarding the Entitlement program, Revenue Alternatives, Reappraisal and Mr. Hansen discussed each item.

Mr. Hansen mentioned the 2010 Census and Legislative Redistricting and noted the data collected is important information for cities and towns to function and spoke about population growth in Montana.

He said the legislature has become involved in all land use issues and local governments need to continue to defend their authority to manage land use and promote community development.

He talked about water quality and nutrient standards in the state and mentioned the cost of updating wastewater treatments plants.

Mr. Hansen discussed the Medical marijuana issues in Montana and said $15,000 people have acquired or are in the process of acquiring a green card. It was agreed in Helena by several groups that the medical marijuana needs to be regulated, and he noted there will be numerous bills created to deal with the issue at the next legislature.

He discussed the changes that are related to the state's public pension and employee benefit program. The health care program is undergoing major provisions and will be in effect in 2014. Mr. Hansen concluded the meeting and with the General Fund Revenue Monitoring Report.
