  2. Ben Weiss, City Bicycle/Pedestrian Program Manager, was unable to attend to speak about greenways. He will reschedule for a later date.
  3. Peter Walker-Keleher with DJ&A Engineers gave an update on the Clark Street sidewalk project. Sidewalks are now being installed between Livingston and Agnes Streets and also between Clark and Eaton Streets. An open house will be held at the Welcoma Club to review plans and discuss any issues.
  4. Lisa Beczkiewicz, Missoula Invest Health director, and Kaia Peterson, NeighborWorks Montana gave a report on the neighborhood survey results. They explained that the survey was done to gain a better understanding of what the neighborhood is interested in, what health issues are present and what action can be taken to improve those issues. There is great interest in a community center and additional small local businesses and cafés. A walk around was conducted in November to locate areas where improvement is needed. Funding is a concern moving forward with the project.
  5. Ellen Buchanan and Annette Marchesseault with Missoula Redevelopment Agency gave an update on the Mary Avenue project. Residents expressed their concerns about the project. A public meeting to discuss the issues will be held on January 31, 2017 at the Welcoma Club.

6. The City Council Representatives answered questions that included topics about the deer population at Franklin Park, buses not stopping at railroad crossings in the neighborhood, and concerns over the lack of snow removal.
7. Jane Kelly gave an explanation of the Outstanding Neighborhood Volunteer of the Year Award and encouraged everyone to make a nomination.
8. Caitlin Gravelle was nominated by Matt Loomis for the Leadership Team election and seconded by Charlie Ernst. She was elected unanimously.
