

Southgate Triangle Neighborhood Council Leadership Team Agenda

October 13, 2021

7:00 PM

City Life Community Room

1. Introductions and Roll Call – Bob Martin
2. Minutes for March 11, 2020 will be approved at a later date.
3. Items to be discussed
 - General Meeting & COVID – Hans Christensen
4. Community Forum Report – Kelly Elam, written report.
 - New map on the Missoula Neighborhood website, search for an address and it shows Neighborhood & boundaries, and Wards & boundaries.
 - Missoula Neighborhood has a new logo. Please view on the neighborhood website.
 - The Missoula Neighborhood website will be updating information and links. There are broken links currently due to the elimination of Internet Explorer. If there is information you need, please contact Kelly at Missoula Neighborhoods.
 - The P&R, Trees for Life and Missoula Neighborhoods planted 20 trees on the Northside boulevards. It was a successful project. Each year a different neighborhood will have the same opportunity.
5. Missoula Neighborhoods Report – Kelly Elam written report.
 - The City will be advertising for a new Neighborhood Coordinator.
 - Other Neighborhoods are having LT meetings virtually and there has not been any in person general meetings due to COVID.
 - The mailing supplement and the $800 has been combined so it is now a general fund for each neighborhood. The total balance for Southgate Triangle is $1500 to be spent before FY23, June 30, 2022. The funds can be spent the way you want, but required to benefit your neighborhood.
 - Missoula Neighborhoods future project is to have every neighborhood have their own logo.
 - Join the conversation! Visit www.EngageMissoula.com to learn about and comment on City projects and initiatives.
